

This week's poem of the week is:-

Dewch i fwyta

Try singing this to the tune of London Bridge is falling down

Half term home/school task

After our holiday, we shall be writing Scientific reports about James Henry Trotter's friends - minibeasts to you and me ! We would like you to choose one of the creatures James met inside the Giant Peach :- a ladybird, a centipede, an earthworm, a glow worm, a spider or a grasshopper. Perhaps you could find out what it looks like, where it lives, what it likes to eat, how it moves, how many babies it has, any unusual facts about it and you could include a picture which you could use in your report. If you find any of these creatures, you might like to watch them.
